

Grandma Susanna Barben and her family. She was left a widow with eight children at the age of 46. (Two children had previously passed away.) She, her husband, Grandpa Jacob Barben, and the five oldest children were all born in Switzerland.

They accepted the Gospel in their native land and immigrated to America and settled in Midway, Utah.

No picture of Grandpa Barben is available, but his son Robert resembled him very much.

Front row, left to right: Fredrick, *William, Grandma, *John, Louisa and *Robert.
Back row, left to right: Susanna, Emma and Rosina (inset)

Seated: Uncle Will and Uncle John. Uncle Rob is standing. They were just young boys when their mother passed away, so they took turns living with their older sisters. Robert md Janet Hair; Will md Ruth Hazel Scott; John md Eva Crandall.

